

NewLife Advantage Anti-Fatigue Mats

NewLife Advantage Anti-Fatigue Mats provide enhanced cushioning and support while standing. Designed by GelPro, these comfort mats are perfect for those standing in one place for long periods of time and experience pain in muscles and joints.

Made from proprietary polyurethane, these Newlife Advantage mats have a stain-resistant textured top surface and non-skid underside with anti-microbial protection, plus beveled edges to prevent trip and fall accidents.

NewLife Advantage floor mats have Comfort-Core technology for added support and cushioning, perfect for the commercial and retail locations. Also, these eco-friendly Advantage comfort mats are produced with Bio-Foam polyurethane, which is a plant-based renewable resource.

Made in the USA, the NewLife Advantage Anti-Fatigue Mats are certified safe by the National Floor Safety Institute, for their high-traction design. The textured upper surface offers enhanced, stylized design.
