

Rover Kneeling Mats

Rover Rollable Kneeling Mats are durable portable kneeling pads that can also be rolled up for head and neck support. These soft pads can even interlock to form a head, neck and back all-in-one support.

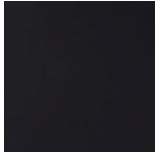

- Rover features a unique, Nitrile-enhanced sponge that is non-conductive, petroleum resistant, and silicone free.
- Available 1" thick.
- Designed for technicians, mechanics, engineers and anyone who moves from place to place to work.
- Rover portable kneeling mats are large enough to stand on, small enough to kneel on and easily transported - just hang it on a cart or carry with one of the built-in handles.
